Dear Parents,

Hello from Kindergarten! Thank you, Parents, for coming to conferences! Talking with you is always so valuable; your insights and feedback are very helpful and instructive. Thank you.

Important notes and highlights:

1. Julia is our student-of-the-week. YAY!
2. Wednesday is 12:30 dismissal (Teacher Meeting)
3. If you can, please donate cans of tuna. St. Agnes is joining other Catholic schools in the Bay Area for out-reach to local families in need of assistance.
4. Monday (Oct.31st) will be an especially fun day: Halloween Party; School Rally; School Assembly. YAY!
5. Tuesday (Nov. 1st) is our All Saints Mass at 9am. Please join us if you can.
6. Because of Mass, Learning Centers for Nov. 1 will move to Friday, Nov. 4 at 11am.
7. For SHARING the week of Oct. 31st, your kinder will bring in a book he/she has made at home! This book is to be authored and illustrated by your kinder. It should be 4-6 pages in length. The writing component can be done independently by the kinder, OR dictated by the kinder to the parent. Markers or crayons can be used illustration. Have fun, Kinders. You are writers and illustrators!!

Take care, everyone. God bless you and yours!
