Principal's Thoughts

Last week we bid farewell to departing staff and this week we will say good-bye to our graduates. We know they are ready to go, but for us it is bitter sweet. They will now join an elite group of alumni that have graced our classrooms, each with a story to tell; now they will officially add their mark upon our history. They are prepared for high school and we have helped them build a strong foundation of faith on which they can make morally responsible decisions. We are proud of them and look forward to hearing about their journey. On Friday night we will also bid adieu to some graduating families and will recognize their years, ranging from 2-16 years, for "attending" St. Agnes School! We will miss these families and all they have offered our community.

For I know well the plans I have in mind for you, says the Lord. Plans for your welfare, not for woe! Plans to give you a future full of hope. When you call me, when you go to pray to me, I will listen to you. When you look for me, you will find me. Yes, when you seek me with all your heart, you will find me with you. (Jeremiah 29:11-14)
