

Principal's Thoughts

The unexpected death of Tracy Timms was truly not the way we anticipated starting the New Year. Ms. Timms had had a short stay in the hospital but she appeared to be on the road to recovery after she returned home, so needless to say, this was a shock. What a blessing it has been however, to be immersed in this supportive catholic community where we strongly believe that her life has not ended but has only changed. During a Mass on All Souls Day, Pope Leo eloquently stated: "eternal life" can be thought of not as "a succession of time without end, but being so immersed in an ocean of infinite love that time, before and after no longer exist." I found this so comforting and I hope you feel the same.

Thank you for taking the time to prepare your child(ren) before coming to school on Monday, I know this was not an easy conversation. I visited each class to check on the students and to remind them that God has a plan for each of us and that Ms. Timms had completed the job He had set forth for her. I also stated how lucky we were to have Ms. Timms with us at St. Agnes School for these past 37 years, that their memories of her were God's gift to them. The children were comforted by this and appear to be taking the situation in stride. As they process this change in their routine, please do not hesitate to let us know if your child(ren) begins to experience difficulty with this loss. Mrs. Layton is available to assist as well.

I do not yet know when the services will be. I am working with the family to set a date in a few weeks so we can celebrate Ms. Timms and the gift she was to her family and St. Agnes School. I will let you know when this celebration of life will take place, as soon as I know.

As Jesus mourned the death of his friend Lazarus, he said to Martha, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in Me, though he may die, he shall live. And whoever lives and believes in Me shall never die." (John 11:25-26 )
